The Ithaca College Women's Chorale is one of five choral ensembles at Ithaca College. The group includes approximately 55 singers, both music and non-music majors, freshmen through seniors. The Ithaca College Women's Chorale has performed in Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall, at the Eastern Division ACDA Convention at MENC National Convention, at MENC Eastern Division Convention, and at NYSSMA. The ensemble was the resident artist choir at the first International Women in Song Festival in Toronto, Canada. The ensemble has worked with many guest artists including Horace Boyer, Libby Larsen, Chen Yi, Gregg Smith, Lukas Foss, Ron Nelson, and Samuel Adler. They recently released their first CD, Cantan. This CD features all the treble works of Francisco Nuñez.

The University Singers of New York University is considered the elite of the classically oriented choirs at NYU and is devoted to a multi-cultural array of new and standard chamber repertoire from all periods. Francisco J. Núñez was appointed conductor of the University Singers in September 2003. In the fall, students auditioned before a jury of professors to create this 24-member ensemble of mostly vocal and theater majors. During their first semester as an ensemble, the University Singers debuted in New York at the NYU Annual Holiday Concert at the Loewe Theater in the Steinhardt School of Education, performed for the University Glee Club of New York City, appeared with the Orchestra of St. Luke's, under the direction of Doreen Rao, in the American premiere of Daniel Brewbaker's Irish Cantata: "Out of the Mist, Above the Real," where they were joined by the internationally acclaimed Irish singer Noirin Ni Riain. And, in December, they joined forces with The Young People's Chorus of New York City, the New York Choral Society and the St. Patrick's Cathedral Chorus and Orchestra to celebrate "Christmas at St. Patrick's Cathedral" an inspiring concert before 5,000 people. This tour represents the first for this young ensemble and its new director.

The Department of Music and Performing Arts Professions at NYU offers professional training combined with the academic excellence of an internationally recognized university. Our programs, baccalaureate through doctoral, share a spirit of openness and innovation, encouraging the pursuit of high artistic goals enriched by the world of interdisciplinary ideas. At NYU, traditional, contemporary and jazz performers, as well as composers and educators elaborate with music technologists on state-of-the-art computerized learning and recording equipment.
